

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Jackie Husman, who will retire from the South Dakota Department of Health; and,

Whereas, Jackie joined the Department of Health in January 1991 as a community health nurse in Yankton County. She has delivered services for child immunizations, and Women, Infants and Children Nutrition Education Services; and,

Whereas, Through the years, Jackie witnessed many changes in service delivery and administration, and she was willing to learn and adopt new technology; and,

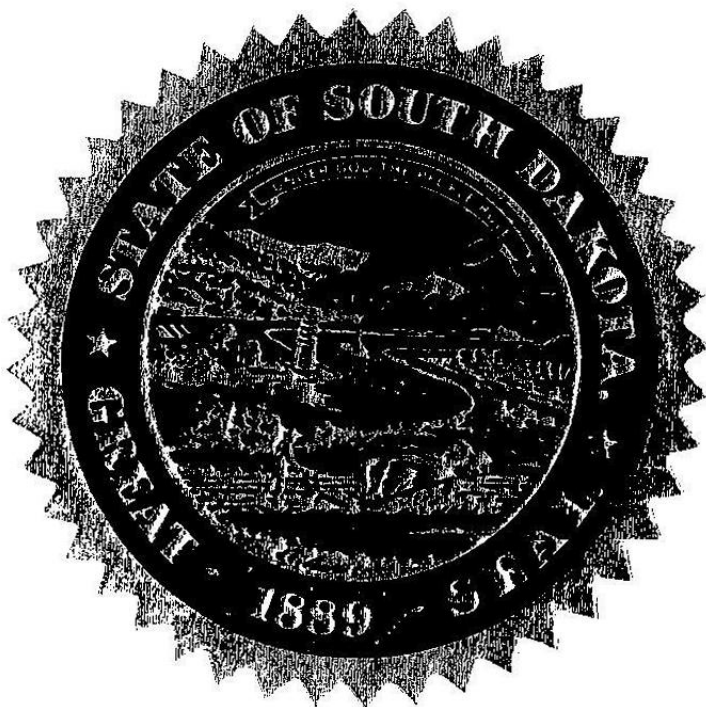

Whereas, On December 23, 2014, after 23 years of service with the state of South Dakota, Jackie is retiring. She plans to spend her retirement traveling, volunteering, boating, golfing, and spending more time with her husband, Mike, and her family; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 23, 2014, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, friends, and colleagues in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fourteen.

Dennis Daugaard
